Anti-Ragging Functionality

1. Anti-Ragging Committee

- The Anti-Ragging Committee consists of faculty, administrative staff, and student representatives to oversee anti-ragging initiatives and investigate complaints.
- The committee ensures awareness and takes immediate action on any reported incidents.

2. Prevention Programs

- Orientation Programs educate students about the dangers of ragging, consequences, and the college's zero-tolerance policy.
- Awareness Campaigns through posters, flyers, and events to promote a respectful campus culture.

3. Complaint and Reporting Mechanism

- Anonymous Reporting: Students can report ragging incidents anonymously through online portals, helplines, or directly to the committee.
- Complaints are addressed confidentially and swiftly to ensure safety.

4. Monitoring and Surveillance

- CCTV Surveillance is installed in key campus areas to monitor and deter ragging activities.
- Regular Inspections are conducted in hostels and common areas to ensure a safe environment.

5. Disciplinary Action

- Investigation: The committee investigates complaints and, if proven, takes severe action against offenders, such as suspension, expulsion, or legal action.
- Strict actions ensure a zero-tolerance approach to ragging.
